Dear General Yarborough:

With reference to your letter of 15 September I am happy to accept your invitation to address your next two Senior Officer Orientation Courses on 4 November and 9 December. We will make the necessary administrative arrangements with your staff at a later date, but you can count on me to be present.

Sincerely yours,

(signed) Lyman B. Kirkpatrick

Dear Mr. Kirkpatrick:

Your presentation to the last Senior Officer Orientation Course in July was one of the highlights of the course. Since we are about to conduct two more such courses before the end of the year, I would like to invite you to address these two classes. The first will be at 0800 hours, 4 November; the second will be at 0800 hours, 9 December 1964.

Your presentation aids our students' understanding of your area of operations to such a degree that we feel it is of vital importance. I hope that you are able to accept this invitation and I shall look forward to seeing you during this visit.

Sincerely,

WILLIAM P. YARBOROUGH
Major General, USA
Commandant

Mr. Lyman B. Kirkpatrick
